Apologies From The Editor

To start with, I apologize most sincerely for misspelling Juanita Coulson's last name in the Hugos issue. While there are a number of excuses I could make for this, it was inexcusable to do so, particularly given that she had won the Big Heart Award and for all her accomplishments and actions which led to her receiving it.

Second, I apologize for what turned out to be a non-existent to limited online presence for the Newsletter. I had some semi-grand plans to really expand the usual posted PDFs, but lack of time (for several reasons) and the addition of extra formatting and printing duties kept this from happening.

I take full responsibility, but the lesson I learned which future Worldcon newsletters may wish to follow is that one or two people should have had the sole job of being responsible for the online content, working in conjunction with the folk responsible for the print Newsletter.

Dead Puppies Aren't Much Fun But Dead Dogs Are

The traditional post-con party, the Dead Dog, will take place in the Con Suite until at least midnight. If you have leftover party supplies to donate to it, please bring them to the New Orleans function room near the Con Suite.

How to Help Nippon 2007

Would you like to help clear the deficit that resulted from Nippon 2007, the Worldcon for that year? You can make a non-tax-deductible donation to help reduce the debt by sending a check payable to Nippon 2007 to BWAWA, P.O. Box 314, Annapolis Junction, MD 20701-0314 or see Peggy Rae Sapienza or Bob MacIntosh.

We Hate Illinois Nazis, But We Love Illinois Volunteers

(Yeah, we're stretching for Blues Brothers quotes here. Fortunately, this is the last issue.) Chicon is still looking for volunteers. 10 hours of volunteer work for the con gets you a Mission Control lanyard, and 25 hours gets your membership fee reimbursed. Helping with move out after the con gets you double hours. To volunteer, go to the Soldier Field Room on the Bronze Level

It was either that or a tasteful selection of moose pictures and jokes.
